

Marseille, cité radieuse

Le Corbusier, Marseille

For lovers of architectures, living in the « cité radieuse » conceived by famous French Architect Le Corbusier is a must. In this protected area of the city, this apartment is a duplex one with the authenticity has been voluntarily preserved. It is 130 sqm in good shape, overlooking the city and its bay on the Mediterranean.

It is composed by a drawing room, kitchen and 4 bedrooms. Ideally, it is the right place to live in the city in a chic district.

Lots of financial advantages due to its historical classification (upon charges and taxes)
